

BIOGRAPHY

Christina M. Renna

---

Christina Renna currently serves as President & CEO of the Chamber of Commerce Southern New Jersey. In this role, Ms. Renna oversees a 10 person team and has direct oversight of the Chamber's work in public policy, education & workforce development, membership growth, membership retention and overall member experience.

Ms. Renna joined the Chamber in 2007 and served as Director of Government Affairs through early 2010. She returned in 2014 as Vice President, then rose through the ranks before taking over the helm of the organization in January of 2020.

Prior to her most recent stint at the Chamber, in 2010 Ms. Renna served in state government for four years, including as Director of Intergovernmental Affairs in the Office of Governor Chris Christie. Ms. Renna's past work experience also includes government affairs, constituent relations, and communications work in both the private and public sector.

In 2010, Ms. Renna was proud to be named as one of SJ Biz Magazine's first-ever list of rising stars in the South Jersey business community. Additionally, every year since 2019 she has been listed on both NJBIZ's Power List as one of the most powerful people in New Jersey's business community and the ROI-NJ Influencers Power List. Active in the community, Ms. Renna currently serves on the Board of several nonprofit and community organizations in the region. She is also one of 100 Chamber executives selected to be on the U.S. Chamber of Commerce CCC100 Committee, which is comprised of the top 100 Chamber executives in the nation.

A graduate of Vineland High School, Ms. Renna received her B.A in political science from Saint Joseph's University in Philadelphia and her Masters in Public Administration, with a minor in City Management, from Villanova University.